

THE SERPENT AND THE MAN.

Find the Man's Child.

The Child of a Cottager was at play at the back of his father's house, and by chance trod upon a Snake, which turned round and bit him. The Child died of the bite; and the Father, pursuing the Snake, aimed a blow at him and cut off a piece of his tail. The Snake gained his hole, and the next day the Man came and laid at the mouth of the hole some honey, meal and salt, and made offers of peace, thinking to entice the Snake forth and kill him. "It won't do," hissed out the Snake. "As long as I miss my tail, and you your Child, there can be no good-will between us."

MORAL—The man who has injured you will never forgive you. It is vain for two people who have injured each other ever to expect to live well together for the future.

IS DYING

WELL KNOWN LOUISVILLE MAN SINKING.

Yesterday's Louisville Times says: "Mr. Paul F. Semonin, Sr., is in a dying condition at his home, 2420 Cypress street. His condition is due to paralysis and old age. He suffered a stroke about two years ago and a year later suffered another. Since then his condition has been growing gradually worse. He is 74 years of age. Dr. J. W. Klein told the family today that Mr. Semonin would live only a few hours. The dying man is the father of five living children, William J. Semonin, county clerk; Mrs. R. E. Gilbert, Mrs. T. P. Young, Miss Mamie Semonin, principal of the Columbia school and Miss Jean Semonin. Mr. Semonin was prominently connected for many years with Louisville tobacco interests, but business reverses caused his retirement."

The above is a brother of Mrs. Zoe Malloure, of Campbell street, Paducah.

TO GRAND JURY.

BOYD, WHO WAS CAUGHT HERE, GIVES BOND.

A Cadiz, Ky., dispatch says of Turner Boyd, the young man arrested by Patrol Driver John Austin a few days ago:

"Marvin Baker and Turner Boyd, about 18 years of age, went to Blue Spring church and broke up the meeting, ending by cursing the preacher and members of the congregation. They were arrested, but their friends came to their rescue, and made the officers turn them loose. They left that night, but the marshal of Cadiz received information from the authorities at Paducah, stating that they had Boyd there in custody. He was brought here and permitted to give bail to await the action of the grand jury."

TRUE BILL FOUND

INDICTMENTS AGAINST LOUISVILLE NEWSPAPER MEN.

The grand jury at Smithland has found true bills against Editor Young Allison of the Louisville Herald, and George Riley, the Frankfort correspondent, for alleged criminal libel. The accused are expected to come down from Louisville today and present themselves for the purpose of executing bond, and it is probable there will be no trials of the cases at this term.

The charge is based on a publication that Supt. H. V. McChesney, of Frankfort, while he was traveling about the state pretending to be looking after his school work, was making speeches and campaigning. The warrants against the newspaper men were taken out in Livingston county, about 300 miles from Supt. McChesney's present home, in order, it is alleged, to cause the accused as much annoyance as possible, and because Supt. McChesney has a pull in Livingston county, it being his former home.

Editor Allison was in the city today en route to Smithland and Correspondent Riley will be down this afternoon en route to the same place.

PANTRYMAN ROBBED

HE WAS VISITING RELATIVES IN CINCINNATI.

The Cincinnati papers of yesterday gave an account of how Wm. Griffiths was assaulted and robbed by a new found acquaintance there night before last. When found he was badly hurt, and his money, a watch and a $190 note were stolen. He said he was employed on the Dick Fowler, and inquiry today revealed the fact that he is pantryman, and has been employed on the boat for the past three years. His relatives live in Cincinnati and he was granted a leave of absence about two weeks ago to visit relatives there. He is about 60 years old, and is not badly hurt.

THE RAILROADS

Supt. Renshaw to Make His Inspection Here Today.

I. C. Employee Goes After a Big Amount of Money Won.

Mr. J. J. Kightlinger, the I. C. operator who yesterday was notified that he had drawn $20,000 in a Honduras lottery, will go to that place about the 20th of this month to look after his newly gotten wealth. He held several one dollar tickets to the lottery, which is a government lottery, and was surprised to receive notification that he had been successful. The money has been deposited in a bank for the claimant and Mr. Kightlinger is arranging to go after it at once.

Mr. William Renshaw, superintendent of machinery of the I. C., and assistants, will arrive in the city this afternoon to make an inspection of the local shops.

Mr. Renshaw was due in the city yesterday but on account of delays by high winds yesterday was unable to come across the river and turned back to make inspections in Illinois. He will come over via Brookport this afternoon in his private car and will proceed south from Paducah.

Last night train No. 375 over the I. C. road, was annulled on account of strong winds. The train is scheduled to leave the depot at 6:15 in the evening but could not get across the river on account of high winds and was annulled.

Mr. Albert Walker, who went temporarily insane from epilepsy in the I. C. machine shops, where he worked, here several days ago, has been sent home.

Mr. George Wiser, general foreman for the Gulf and Ship Island road, who is visiting in the city, is ill at his home on North 12th street.

Mr. W. J. Harahan, assistant general manager of the I. C., is due back from Louisville today. He will probably go south from here.

DISASTER RECALLED

Relic of the Lucy Walker Found Near New Albany.

Carpenters Chest Lost in Explosion Over Half a Century Ago Was Intact.

TREASURER IS STILL LOST

A heavy cedar chest, bound with iron and bearing on one end the inscription, "Lucy Walker," was found by some boys while picking up coal on a bar below New Albany. The chest was of the sort used by steamboat carpenters, and the discovery of the inscription on it revealed the fact that it once figured in a river horror nearly 60 years ago.

The Lucy Walker was a fine steamer of the old days. On the night of October 25, 1844, she pulled out from New Albany with a big crowd of passengers bound for New Orleans. The captain was warned that the boiler was defective, but he left port, saying that he would start the trip if he blew the boat up.

His words were prophetic. The boat had scarcely gotten under way when the boilers let go with a terrific noise. The boat was landed in flames, but the disaster cost 25 persons their lives and injured a score of others.

Captain Joe Fowler well remembers the terrible disaster, and states that no Paducahans figured in it. Of the dead there were eight unidentified, and their bodies now lie in Fairview cemetery near New Albany in unmarked graves.

Among the survivors was a girl babe not old enough to tell her name or parentage. She was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loughmiller of New Albany, who reared her as their own. She is still living in New Albany having since married and reared a family.

In the office of the boat was a safe containing $20,000 in gold. No trace of this treasure has ever been found in the three score intervening years, and for the last four decades or more no search has been made for it. Prior to that time every summer during the low water season, bands of New Albany men made a practice of dragging the river for many miles below the scene of the explosion, but no trace of the safe was ever found. With the discovery of the chest, interest in the Lucy Walker has again revived about New Albany and it is expected that active search will be made for the treasure.

2,650 PUPILS

Are Enrolled in the Public Schools.

It Is a Large Increase Over Last Year.

The enrollment of the local public schools both white and colored, is 2,650 and still pupils are applying for entrance cards.

The total white enrollment to date is a fraction over 1900 and the colored enrollment is 750. This exceeds the enrollment of last year quite a great deal and better results are expected generally this year than last.

The principals will meet Friday to consider a course in literature to be taken up by the teachers' literary society which is formed every year. The principals met last Tuesday but postponed action until Friday.

The heating plants at the different schools were brought into play today except at the Longfellow school where the plant is still undergoing repairs. The big electric fan which is to throw the air into the rooms has not arrived and this will delay the completion of the improvements some time.

THE HANDBOOK

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN EDITION IS OUT.

The Republican campaign handbook, which has been in the hands of the printer for the past several days, will be ready for distribution today.

The book, which covers about seventy pages, is a complete and comprehensive statement of the leading issues of the campaign. It gives a brief synopsis of Governor Beckham's record and of his loose management of the public institutions of the state. The school book question, Beckham's eligibility, reports from the auditor's office and numerous other issues are treated in the handbook.

It is not the intention of the Republican managers to make a general distribution of the book, but to use it chiefly as a guide to the Republican orators. The book is not of the argumentative sort, but is a brief synopsis of facts and figures.
